ETIQUETTE and MINOR RULES GUIDE

THE 10 COMMANDMENTS

GENERAL PLAY

1. Play thy game as you expect others to play it, having respect for thy partner's¹ position and needs on the course.
2. Check in early and get to the tee on time (at least 5 mins before tee-off) - do not keep thy playing partner(s) waiting.
3. Help to search for thy partner's ball (if you don't this will be remembered later when you need their help)!
4. Take cognisance of the call up holes (2nd and 16th)!

TEEING OFF

5. Declare thy ball before teeing off and thy subsequent provisional ball (making sure it is distinguishable from first)!
6. 'tis basic courtesy to watch thy partner's drive and indicate where it went (especially in bright sunlight)!
7. Remember, Three² minutes search time is for thy ball not thy tee!

PUTTING OUT

8. Taketh thy turn to putt but giveth thy partner the option to putt out first.
9. Step ye not on thy partner's putting line ('tis tantamount to stepping on their grave)!
10. If you have puttied out (or picked up), 'tis also basic courtesy to witness thy partner's putt - head ye not to next tee in ignorance of the result!
